The city of Aberdeen is largely in favor of a railroad tax, as shown by a vote of 473 for to 6 against the proposition to levy a tax of $100,000 in favor of the Elyton and Aberdeen Railroad. The legal frateinity may congratulata themselves upon this vote, for as an assured fact they will be benefited, whether the road is ever built or not. Litigation always increases as the prospect for a railroad, for which a tax is voted, 'grows small by degrees and beautifully less.'

Buchanan will contest the seat of Col. Manning, in Congress, but with prayers, go to church, and never say what degree of success we cannot guess. It seems, however, from the number of contests from the South, that every carpet-bagger, scallawag, or "nigger" who succeeded in getting his party nomination thinks he must be seated, not became he was elected, but because a majority of the next Congress are his party friends, and we appose Buck be lieves he has as much right to a seat
